Dear L&W Client,

Each year, we provide you with a copy of our current Privacy Policy disclosure. This is good business practice and is also required by SEC regulations.

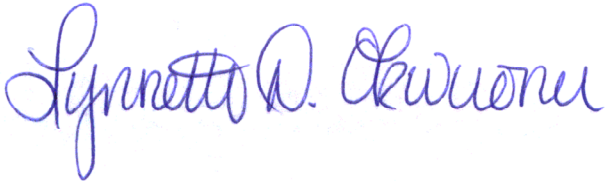

Although we operate as an independently managed subsidiary of Cadence Bank, N.A., regulations require that we provide you with a copy of Cadence Bank's comprehensive privacy policy disclosure, which includes Linscomb & Williams.

One point that can be confusing in the bank's disclosure deserves a clarification. It is the bank's practice to permit sharing of its customer data among various departments of the bank. However, this does NOT change our policy within Linscomb & Williams. We do NOT share your personal data with departments of the bank unless you so direct or permit us.

If you have questions about this, you can contact your Wealth Advisor or myself.

Thanks, as always, for your loyalty as a client.

Kindest Regards,

Lynnette D. Okwuonu, CPA/PFS, CGMA
Chief Compliance Officer

FACTS

WHAT DOES CADENCE BANK AND ITS AFFILIATES DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and transaction history
- Credit history and credit scores

How?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons Cadence Bank and its affiliates choose to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

| Reasons we can share your personal information | Does Cadence Bank share? | Can you limit this sharing? |
|--|--------------------------|-----------------------------|
| For our everyday business purposes— such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus | Yes | No |
| For our marketing purposes— to offer our products and services to you | Yes | No |
| For joint marketing with other financial companies | Yes | No |
| For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your transactions and experiences | Yes | No |
| For our affiliates' everyday business purposes— information about your creditworthiness | Yes | Yes |
| For our affiliates to market to you | Yes | Yes |
| For non-affiliates to market to you | No | We don't share |

To limit our sharing

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

This notice is provided by Cadence Bank, N.A.; Cadence Bancorporation, a financial holding company; Cadence Bank's subsidiaries, Linscomb & Williams and Altera Payroll & Insurance Inc.; and AloStar, a division of Cadence Bank.

What we do

How does Cadence Bank protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

We also maintain other physical, electronic and procedural safeguards to protect this information with access limited to appropriate employees.

How does Cadence Bank collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or apply for a loan
- Direct us to buy securities or direct us to sell your securities
- Make deposits or withdrawals from your account

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- Sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- Affiliates from using your information to market to you
- Sharing for non-affiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.

Definitions

Affiliates

Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.

Our affiliates include companies with the Cadence name and financial companies such as insurance agencies, securities broker-dealers, and investment advisors.

Non-affiliates

Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and non-financial companies.

Cadence Bank does not share with non-affiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing

A formal agreement between non-affiliated financial companies that together market financial products or services to you.

Our joint marketing partners include credit card companies and financial services companies.
